

GENEROSITY

Making Someone's Day By Giving
Something Away

TALK

- At a meal this week, have everyone at the table answer this question: "What are some good things God has given you?" (friendships, things, food, encouragement, etc.)
- Now discuss as a family what good things you have that you could share with others? Generosity can be giving more than just physical things. You can give your time, talents or resources. Make a list of those together.

DO TOGETHER

Make a list of five ways you could generously give your time this month. Then, think about the best day and time to perform those generous acts and write it next to each item. Draw a line through each task you complete. Check your work at the end of the month to see if you've followed through.

- Talk about things you are thankful for.
- Many of the things we are thankful for are our favorite things. (food, friends, songs, toys, characters, etc.).
- There are also things that we are thankful for that aren't our favorites, but things we need (rain, medicine, healthy food, sleep, etc.).
- Talk about how we can thank God for anything when we pray.
- Pray together thanking God for as many things you can think of.

DO TOGETHER

Have a thankful dance party. Put on some fun music and dance around. Stop the music at random times and shout something you are thankful for. This is a great time to be silly and have fun together!
