Join us for “A Conversation of Hope,” an inspiring evening featuring Healing House founder Bobbi Jo Reed in conversation with Pastor Adam Hamilton. With over 29 years of sobriety and a powerful story of transformation, Reed has dedicated her life to helping others overcome addiction, establishing a network of recovery homes that have served more than 14,000 individuals in Kansas City. Her remarkable journey, chronicled in the documentary Bobbi Jo: Under the Influence, exemplifies the power of hope and second chances. Don't miss this compelling dialogue taking place on Thursday, January 23 from 6 to 7 pm in the Foundry at Resurrection Leawood, with live streaming available on our website.
